Pioneer Days Queen, court will share many valuable prizes

More than $1,000 in scholarships and prizes await the winners of the Second Annual Miss Carbondale Pioneer Days Pageant which will be held August 22 at Carbondale Area High School.

The queen will receive a $500 scholarship and dozens of other prizes and gift certificates. Each of the four runnersup will receive $100 U.S. Savings Bonds and many other prizes.

Kitty Golin, pageant chairman, said the deadline for entering the pageant has been extended to July 23 to give Carbondale girls in grades 9 through 12 time to obtain entry blanks.

The entry forms may be obtained at the Netti Waibel Shoppe, Ms. Fashions, Durkin's Apparel, the Roselle Shop, Roemmelmeyer's, The Show Kase, Pat Baker's, or Bob's Variety Store.

The pageant will be at 7:30 p.m., Sunday, Aug. 22 in Carbondale Area High School auditorium under the directon of Allyn Benson.

Miss Carbondale Pioneer Days will represent Pioneer Days and the City of Carbondale in various events throughout the year. In addition, the queen and her court will ride on a specially designed float in the big Pioneer Days Parade Saturday, Aug. 28.

Ms. Golin said "We've expanded the number of prizes this year because of the talent we saw in last year's pageant. We felt that there were so many deserving of citation that we've added as prizes this year the $100 U.S. Savings Bonds for the runnersup."

Categories in the competition are "40's Wear," gown and talent. Rehearsals will begin the final week of July for all contestants.

Ms. Golin said "The pageant is an opportunity for local girls to show their talent and gain recognition for that talent as well as win scholarships and valuable prizes."

She added "Girls entering the pageant will have a fun time, a chance to do their own thing, and of course, have the experience of working with one of the true talents in our area -- Allyn Benson."

Thw winner of last year's pageant was Ellen Szymaszek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Szymaszek.
